THE TIMES

When you have something

For Sale, Rent

Lost or Found

There are quiet spots where those weary feet find rest, and there are rivers, lakes and the sea where he who laments and hears the whir of the rot may secure the feast of game fish; throughout large portions of the country the canoe tourist hearken to those who would get away from the nerve-straining conditions of present-day civilization, and camping site await those who would live to the open.

Many thousands of miles of the best of highways offer to the motorist of opportunity to tour Canada as never before. Millions of motorists have poured out that road travel shall be comfortable and pleasurable, and over these good roads each year thousands of visitors view the country and recognize its beauties and appreciate its natural resources. When outdoor can see so many things to interest them in Canada why should Canadians not pay more attention to their own country's charms and send their sons there before going outside to do their mending and spend their money.

The Court of Last Appeal

YOU are the judge and the jury. Your verdict is final. There can be no appeal—for this is the High Court of Public Opinion.

The words of the world must appear before you—the product of every factory—the merchandise of every store. Those things that fail to measure up to your requirements are quickly condemned to oblivion.

The Merchant who Advertises deliberately places his merchandise on trial

He openly courts your critical inspection. He invites comparison. He directs your attention to his goods, and then forces them to stand on their own merits.

If he were not sure of his wares he would not dare to advertise. For advertising would put him in a test he cannot afford to fail.

You can depend on the man who Advertises. He knows his product is good.

That's one reason why it pays to read the advertiser in this paper. It's through advertising that you are able to keep in touch with the goods that progressive business men are spending their money to introduce and to keep before you.
